

SECTIGO VULNERABILITY SCANNING SUBSCRIBER AGREEMENT

IMPORTANT—PLEASE READ THESE TERMS CAREFULLY BEFORE APPLYING FOR, ACCEPTING, OR USING THE SECTIGO VULNERABILITY SCANNING SERVICES, INCLUDING HACKERPROOF AND HACKERGUARDIAN. BY USING, APPLYING FOR, OR ACCEPTING THE VULNERABILITY SCANNING SERVICES OR BY CLICKING ON “I ACCEPT” BELOW, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT YOU HAVE READ THIS AGREEMENT, THAT YOU UNDERSTAND IT, AND THAT YOU AGREE TO AND ACCEPT THE TERMS AS PRESENTED HEREIN. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT, DO NOT APPLY FOR, ACCEPT, OR USE SECTIGO’S VULNERABILITY SCANNING SERVICES AND CLICK “DECLINE” BELOW.

The terms and conditions set forth in this Vulnerability Scanning Subscriber Agreement (this “Agreement”) constitute a binding agreement between you or the legal entity you represent (“Subscriber” or “you”) and Sectigo Limited (“Sectigo”), with registered number 04058690 and with registered offices at 26 Office Village, 3rd Floor, Exchange Quay, Trafford Road, Salford, Manchester M5 3EQ, United Kingdom. Any failure of Subscriber to abide by this Agreement shall void Sectigo’s obligations hereunder.

1. Use of the Services

- 1.1. License. Sectigo grants to you a revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the vulnerability scanning services, and related services, selected during the registration process (either HackerProof or HackerGuardian), including the security scans, logos, audits, and reports (the “Services”) to identify areas of insecurity or vulnerability on a scanned network server, personal computer, or other internet-connected device (each a “System”) for the term of this Agreement. You authorize Sectigo to perform the Services on the specified Systems.
- 1.2. Registration. In order to receive the Services, you must register for an account with Sectigo. You shall provide full and accurate information in all electronic or hardcopy documents submitted to Sectigo. This information must be promptly updated if any information changes or ceases to remain accurate. Failure to promptly update information shall be deemed a material breach of this Agreement.
- 1.3. Account. The account shall be protected by a username and password which are confidential information. Subscriber is fully responsible for any activities that occur through its account. Subscriber must notify Sectigo immediately if it suspects any unauthorized use of the account.
- 1.4. Third-Party Services. The Services will provide access to services provided by and licensed by third-parties (“Third-Party Services”). For purposes of this Agreement, such Third-Party Services are subject to their own terms and conditions, separate from this Agreement, presented to you for acceptance within the Services by website link or otherwise (“Third-Party Terms”). In the event of a conflict between this Agreement and the Third-Party Terms, the Third-Party Terms shall prevail as it pertains to (i) use of the Third-Party Services, and (ii) any licenses granted (and restrictions) to the Third-Party Services.
- 1.5. Scanning. The Services serve only as a passive conduit to provide the scan and recommended fixes and are not intended to fix, remedy, prevent, or eliminate any vulnerabilities or insecurities. Subscriber is solely responsible for securing and protecting its system. The Services only scan for major known vulnerabilities. A successful scan does not guarantee or ensure that the System is free of all vulnerabilities or insecurities. The number of scans performed depends on the subscription selected during the registration process.
- 1.6. TrustLogo. Any IP address failing a scan may not display the logo associated with the Services. HackerProof users who pass the first scan and then later fail a daily scan may continue to display the logo for up to consecutive two scan cycles while attempting to fix the problem. If a scan is not passed within two scan cycles, the logo must be removed from the website failing the scan. Displaying the logo before passing the initial daily scan or after failing to pass a daily scan within two consecutive scan cycles is a material breach of this Agreement, and Sectigo may deactivate the Services automatically without providing further notice to you.
- 1.7. Self-Assessment Questionnaire (SAQ). In the event an SAQ is selected by Subscriber as part of the Services, Sectigo may provide Subscriber with information and opinions about individual questions in the SAQ. Any information and opinions provided by Sectigo are for general information purposes only, are not intended to constitute professional advice, and should not be relied upon or treated as a substitute for specific advice relevant to Subscriber's particular circumstances. Ultimately, Subscriber is responsible for the quality, accuracy, and completeness of its answers when submitting an SAQ.

- 1.8. Changes in Services. Sectigo may modify the Services in its sole discretion, including removing, modifying, or updating the specific scans performed. These modifications may be made without notice from Sectigo.
- 1.9. Trial Versions and A/B Testing. If Subscriber registers with a trial version of the Services, Subscriber may use the Services during the trial period without payment. The licenses granted herein shall automatically terminate at the end of the trial period, or when Sectigo disables access to the Services, unless Subscriber purchases a non-trial version of the Services. Trial versions will display the logo associated with the Services on an A/B test mechanism. This means the logo will be displayed to approximately half of the website visitors. At the end of the trial period, Sectigo may access and use statistical information about the use the Services on Subscriber's website. Such use may occur without notification to Subscriber. Trial versions may be terminated at any time by purchasing a subscription to the Services. Free trials are limited to one per domain name and may not be renewed. Free trials use cookies, Sectigo Analytics, and javascript and will only function on browsers and systems allowing such activity. To use a free trial, you are required to allow cookies from your website and must include the use of cookies in your site's privacy policy. Sectigo does not guarantee that the free trial offer will be available at all times and in all locations and such accounts are granted in Sectigo's sole discretion.

 - (iv) Bypass or violate any policies and procedures of networks connected to the Services;
 - (v) Directly or indirectly, reproduce, sell, lease, rent, transfer, or exploit the Services;

 - (vii) Represent that Sectigo guarantees any of your products or services;
 - (viii) Use a report generated by the Services for any reason other than obtaining PCI compliance, remediating vulnerabilities on the scanned system, or other internal business purposes; or
 - (ix) Reverse engineer or otherwise derive the processes and source code by which the Services are provided or by which the reports are generated.

3. Fees and Payment

- 3.1. Generally. The Services are provided on a subscription basis for the duration specified on the Order Form; which means a written or electronic order pursuant to this Agreement that must, at a minimum, reference the specific service, price and term information; billing contact information, (e.g. contact name, address, email, phone number), and other information relevant to a specific transaction pursuant to this Agreement ("Order Form"). Payment shall be made in accordance with (i) the payment terms listed on the Order Form, provided Subscriber purchases directly from Sectigo, or (ii) the payment terms established between Subscriber and the legal entity authorized by Sectigo to resell the Services to Subscriber ("Reseller"), provided Subscriber purchases from a Reseller. Subscriber shall pay all applicable fees for the Services before the Services are rendered. Subscriber acknowledges and agrees that if Subscriber or Reseller (if Subscriber purchased the Services through Reseller) does not pay the applicable fees for the Services, Subscriber may not use the Services for which the applicable fees remain unpaid.

- 3.2. Fees. Subscriber shall pay all fees resulting from Services ordered under its account, regardless of any actual use of the Services or if Subscriber's site passes the vulnerability scans. If Subscriber purchases Services directly from Sectigo, prices for the Services shall be those posted on the Sectigo website at www.hackerguardian.com. Sectigo may revise its fees at any time by posting an amended fee schedule on the website. Continued use of the Services after an amended fee schedule is posted constitutes Subscriber's acceptance of the fee changes.
- 3.3. Purchases Direct from Sectigo.
- (i) Method of Payment. Fees must be paid in advance and are non-refundable. For monthly paid subscriptions, monthly account billing starts at midnight on the first of every month. Payment must be made by the credit or debit card designated by Subscriber during the account registration, and Subscriber authorizes Sectigo to charge all fees to this credit card. For paid subscriptions, Subscriber's credit card shall be charged automatically for all fees owed for the Services using the debit or credit card provided during the registration process. Accounts designated as group invoice billing account must be approved by and will be invoiced on a monthly basis.
 - (ii) Billing Issues. Questions regarding fees and charges must be made to Sectigo within thirty (30) days of such charge. Failure to use the account is not a basis for refusing to pay any charges. Billing corrections shall be made by providing a credit to Subscriber's account for future monthly fees or for the purchases of service upgrades. Sectigo may deactivate any account that has a disputed charge until Sectigo, in its sole discretion, determines the dispute resolved.
 - (iii) Rejected Charges. If a fee is rejected by your card issuer (or its agent or affiliate), Sectigo may deactivate your account and prevent access to the Services until the fee has been successfully processed.
- 3.4. Purchases through Resellers. If Subscriber purchased a Service from a Reseller, then to the extent there is any conflict between this Agreement and an agreement entered between Subscriber and the Reseller, including any purchase order, then, as between Subscriber and Sectigo, this Agreement shall prevail. Any rights granted to Subscriber by such Reseller, which are not contained in this Agreement, apply only in connection with the Reseller.
- 3.5. Taxes. Prices do not include any sales, use, excise, transaction, or similar taxes. If such taxes are applicable, Sectigo will separately state them on the invoice. Except for any taxes on Sectigo's income, Subscriber shall pay all taxes resulting from Subscriber's possession and use of the Services under this Agreement.

When Sectigo is threatened with suit or sued by a third-party, Sectigo may seek written assurances from you concerning your promise to indemnify Sectigo. Failure to provide assurance is a material breach of this Agreement. Sectigo shall have the right to participate in any defense by Subscriber of a third-party claim related to the Services, with counsel of Sectigo's choice at Subscriber's expense. Subscriber must receive Sectigo's prior written consent regarding any related settlement.
